Code of Conduct
Underpinning our interaction at Trinity School for Seniors is respect for the dignity, rights and views of others. We exist to provide companionship through learning, and we have a duty of care that ensures the safety of each individual, as far as is possible. This safety includes protecting our community members from physical danger, but also includes caring for their peace of mind, their confidence and their contentment within themselves.
New Student Induction
A student handbook is available from Reception introducing new students to the Trinity School for Seniors Community. An orientation tour for new students is conducted at the beginning of each term, please register your interest at Reception.
