The student choirs of Aquinas College, John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School, Scotch College and St George's College UWA combine for an unforgettable performance of Fauré's Requiem.

2024 marks the 100th anniversary since the death of the beloved composer, and what a beautiful to celebrate the legacy of this famed pedagogue, having over one hundred students learn and sing his music.

The concert will feature the Wesley Chamber Orchestra and Uniting Church in the City Artist in Residence, Alessandro Pittorino, who will feature as both conductor and soloist in Poulenc's Organ Concerto.
